TAMAGO-KEN Shibuya Allergen and Nutrition Information

Please check allergens for the combination you order: sauce, omurice, toppings, and drinks. Sauces are listed first. The omurice rows do not include the sauce, so please also check the row for the sauce you choose.

● Contained as an ingredient △ May be present due to the factory or cooking process (e.g. shared frying oil) Blank: not used as an ingredient

All dishes are prepared with the same cooking tools in the same kitchen, so even items marked blank may contain trace amounts. We are unable to remove or change ingredients for allergy reasons. If you have a food allergy and have any concerns, please refrain from eating. Allergic reactions vary from person to person, and even trace amounts can cause symptoms. Please consult your doctor before deciding whether to eat.

Dietary: ○ Vegetarian = no meat or seafood (including extracts, stock and gelatin); eggs and dairy are used. Muslim friendly = no pork or pork-derived ingredients. This is not halal certification, and our chicken and beef are not halal. Items cooked with alcohol (heated) are noted under Notes. When combining a sauce and toppings, please make sure every row is marked ○.

Calories are approximate values per serving, calculated from the ingredients and their amounts, and may differ from the actual dish. Omurice values include the sauce; for dishes where you choose the sauce, they are calculated with Hashed Beef Sauce. Free soups and side dishes are not included. Sauce rows show the amount poured on one omurice (the omurice rows already include it). "—" means not yet calculated.

Covered: 9 mandatory and 20 recommended allergens under Japanese labeling rules, plus 4 items we list ourselves (onion, garlic, tomato, mushroom)
